

International Authority on Authentic Kabbalah Brings Ancient Wisdom and Insights to Nine US Cities and Nationwide

Worldwide, some 1.3 million people study and practice authentic Kabbalah through the Bnei Baruch Kabbalah Education & Research Institute, and from October 9-28, the world's leading authority on authentic Kabbalah will be traveling on a nine city tour of the US, including Los Angeles, San Francisco, Chicago, Philadelphia and New York, speaking to audiences on this ancient science. Rav Michael Laitman, Ph.D., the founder and president of the Institute, will be available for interviews and can discuss the Kabbalist position on a host of current issues including terrorism, the Iraq War, the difference between celebrity and pop culture practices of Kabbalah and authentic Kabbalah, global warming, and so much more. At the conclusion of his US trip, he will travel to Monterrey, Mexico, where he will attend the World Wisdom Council and present at the 2007 Monterrey Forum.

(PRWeb) October 7, 2007 -- Worldwide, some 1.3 million people study and practice authentic Kabbalah through the Bnei Baruch Kabbalah Education & Research Institute, and from October 9-28, the world's leading authority on authentic Kabbalah will be traveling on a nine city tour of the US, including Los Angeles, San Francisco, Chicago, Philadelphia and New York, speaking to audiences on this ancient science.

Rav Michael Laitman, Ph.D., the founder and president of the Institute, will be available for interviews and can discuss the Kabbalist position on a host of current issues including terrorism, the Iraq War, the difference between celebrity and pop culture practices of Kabbalah and authentic Kabbalah, global warming, and so much more. At the conclusion of his US trip, he will travel to Monterrey, Mexico, where he will attend the World Wisdom Council and present at the 2007 Monterrey Forum.

- Is Kabbalah a religion? Spiritual practice? Science?
- Celebrities including Madonna and Demi Moore ignite interest in Kabbalah; learn how their practices differ from authentic Kabbalah teaching.
- Explore how a 4,000 year old science transcends the "passing fad" label.
- Find the answer to life's deepest question "What is life about?"
- Where is Kabbalah practiced? Find out about Kabbalah's dramatic growth and how many people practice Kabbalah in the U.S. and around the world.

Who:

Rav Michael Laitman, Ph.D., regarded internationally as the foremost authority on Kabbalah, will discuss the science of Kabbalah and how individuals of any religion or faith tradition can incorporate the essence and lessons of Kabbalah into everyday practice. Rav Laitman is the founder and president of Bnei Baruch Kabbalah Education & Research Institute in Israel, and the author of more than 30 books on Kabbalah and science, including the just-published The Complete Idiot's Guide to Kabbalah.

What:

Rav Laitman will speak on ancient concepts and the authentic teaching of Kabbalah. Kabbalah is an ancient method of spiritual growth and development offering an inspiring path of self-discovery and spiritual elevation.

Rav Laitman's nine-city tour of the United States begins in Los Angeles followed by San Francisco, Chicago, Toronto, Miami, Atlanta, Philadelphia, and New York, concluding October 27 in St. Louis. From St. Louis, Rav Laitman will travel to Monterrey, Mexico, where he will attend the World Wisdom Council (WWC), where he is a presenter in the 2007 Monterrey Forum.

When:

October 9-28, 2007

Rav Laitman speaks Hebrew and Russian and is accompanied by an interpreter. He is available for in-person, in-studio, satellite and phone interviews.

Rav Laitman will be speaking on the Kabbalah experience to audiences throughout the US. For information on individual city speaking engagements, please contact the individuals below. Videotape is available upon request.

To schedule an interview with Rav Michael Laitman, please contact:

Tina Weinheimer

(708) 366-1084

Gardi Wilks

(708) 366-8389

Background:

Rav Michael Laitman established Bnei Baruch Kabbalah Education & Research Institute in 1991, following the passing of his teacher, Rav Baruch Shalom HaLevi Ashlag (The Rabash), the firstborn son and successor of the greatest Kabbalist of the 20th century, Rabbi Yehuda Leib HaLevi Ashlag. Rabbi Yehuda Ashlag is author of the most authoritative and comprehensive commentary on The Book of Zohar, The Sulam (Ladder) Commentary, the first to reveal the complete method for spiritual ascent. Rav Laitman was Ashlag's prime student, personal assistant, and is recognized as the successor of Rabash's teaching method.

Rav Laitman has dedicated his life to spreading the wisdom of Kabbalah to the world. In his new book, The Complete Idiot's Guide to Kabbalah, Rav Laitman uses rich analogies, examples, and insights to present the most ancient wisdom in simple, easy to understand language. He shows readers how to embrace the ancient teachings and incorporate them into daily life, and offers enlightening insights on:

- The escalating global crisis and issues such as terrorism, climate, health and education
- Freedom of choice -- where we have it and where we don't
- Reality -- how we can expand our perception of the reality we live in and learn to design it
- The story of creation and how to read the Bible and Torah from a Kabbalah point of view.

###

Contact Information*Gardi Wilks

Wilks Communications

<http://www.kabbalah.info/kabbalah-tour-2007.htm>

708-366-8389

Online Web 2.0 VersionYou can read the online version of this press release here.